The Book of Good Angels

Wonderful

are thy works O God of Israel, infinite thy purposes, sublime thy intents, thou that hast endued with mysterious powers, the smallest plant and thrown the glory of thy power over the whole bosom of nature from the mighty mammoth who devorath the fields of plenty to the minute gnat that feedeth on insect atoms. We praise thee, the boundless sea with its myriads of change kinds, the bright and green earth, streed with gold and gems are the work of thy hands, the Heavens with its Orbs of sympathy, the Sun that encircles the world with light revolve by thy ordaining, and beyond the terrene, the Immortality within us is thy breath, and by thy wisdom is it, Eternal, majesty & strength is thine, humility be ours, be thou pleased to enlighten our minds to fathom the depths of nature & draw from its profound sources those radiant truths hidden from the common gaze of man, so that by directing our souls to wisdom we may arise with an unblemished Countenance before thee.

5

---

 me advise thee oh my Son that ye follow not the Common Way which is purposely falsified to lead ye astray for what man is there who hath had knowledge of good Angels would cast that knowledge by the wayside, that fools perchance might gain it, or who so wicked as to place the flaming sword in a child's hand that foolishness might accompany the brilliant gift of Spirituality, believe not their words when they speak of invocation for verily beneath the garb of innocence lurketh the Fiend himself who will come as an Angel of light to lure thee to destruction,

There is but one lawful magic which I forlore of thee my son will reveal, and I send you this writing by our faithful slave. because you are modest and just to your fellow-man but I charge you my son, that you speak not of this to any one. especially to Diomedes who I foresee is our enemy and would betray us to Caesar hear this in thy mind and soil not. so thalt thou receive the science of the Magi which is not to be prostituted to the world, widdly taken on hand for vain purposes, but only of the Glory of God. Amen.

O Mortal thou who wouldst pierce the profundity of fate, and draw from the womb of angelic life the glorious mysteries of a sublimer creation Thou who wouldst boldly grasp the beautiful infinite of soul and lay thy finger on the swift feet of the million essences of Love. Listen to my words.
 Let thy whole desire be godly for there is is perfection, thy actions pure & spotless striving for no base end, but desirous to enter into this glory that thou might become. just as potent, and merciful as great, let no earthly honors tempt thee to swerve from the path of rectitude by rendering this knowledge available for evil purposes, but as the Sun is to the universe so let it shine upon thy heart with benificent ray; & from the secret altar below lift thee by its shining excellencē to the White Throne of the Heaven of Heavens.

nothing for me here and, but remains to enter into this story that this night became first as future, and successful as such, let me roughly draw a rough sketch to show from the point of view of entering the history of mankind the great purpose, but as the aim is to the human as to all of them upon the heart with beautiful and happy the great aim before all the of the nothing remains to the whole of them of the history of the world.

To make Rice Patent

Whith the abundance of thy birth not that he is, then get a piece of metal like the shape of the patent, and use it as it be pure, for otherwise it will but, press it in the form till it be changed of the dress, and become a fine regular, which is to be done by hammer, so that there shall be no more the feel of the metal in it.

Then having done let the metal be second and before the time passed away do as I shall bid thee.

Put it in thy right hand and with the outmost, handle upon it, for 33

To make the potent

Behold the Almuten of thy birth and what he is, then get a piece of metal of the nature of the planet, and see that it be pure, for otherwise it will foul, purge it in the fire till it be cleansed of its dross, and become a fine regulus, which is to be done by Chymia, so that being clean it may receive its full of Celestial influence.

This being done let the Almuten ascend and before the horn passeth away do as I shall bid thee.

Take it in thy right hand and with devoutness, breathe upon it, for

34

so shalt thou associate with thyself by the invisible chords of sympathy then kneeling press it to thy heart saying this.

Prayer

O GOD who hast implanted in this matter a nature akin to the planetary monarch who governed at my birth yet being earthly as I... cannot help me unless it receives the full glory of its own fountain, behold I have prepared it fme to accept it—yea even in this horn of strength..

Then breathe upon it again strongly repeating the prayer, in all three times The number of the blessed Trinity

Then take a fine steel point & trace the character of the planet, if you but touch the surface it will suffice, tho' nothing be seen and beneath it inscribed the word. VIM .. so is it complete.

Use We Thereof

If thou be in danger of thy life in open battle, or by the dagger of the Assassin lay but thy finger upon it and the hand of him who would strike shall be paralysed, breathe upon thy enemy, and by antipathy he shall die yea it shall cut him down though he be clothed in mail of Damascus.

drawn to follow thee, then anoint thy
